

Indiana has provided us with the option and oppotunity to stop unwanted and unsolicited phone calls. To me ... this is our right, as paying customers of the phone service provided to us by our local phone providers. Interference by the federal government to me would be an invasion on my rights as a consumer.